Time: 9:00-3:30

Description: This session will provide participants with a report from the National Standards Project reviewing the most current research-validated and effective interventions for learners with ASD.

The Pennsylvania Department of Education is affiliated with The National Autism Center which has spearheaded the National Standards Project, an unprecedented effort to produce a set of standards for effective, research-validated education and behavioral intervention for children with Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD).

The afternoon will provide guidelines from the Pennsylvania Department of Education regarding what base level knowledge, skills and competencies related to educating learners with autism all professional staff working in schools should have in their pre-service training programs.

Presenter: Susan M. Wilczynski, PhD BCBA, National Autism Center Cathy Scutta, M.S., OTR/L, BCBA, PaTTAN Educational Consultant
